BAN FRANCISCO, April 10 .-- Crop reperts received this evening from all parts of the State are of the most faorable character, with few exceptions. There is a prospect of an abundant harvest in all quarters. The southers portion of the State and San Joaquin Valley, in which crops failed last year, promise equally well with northern valleys. In some localities there is complaint that, owing to early snow, grain has grown so rank as to lodge, but this has not occurred to any material extent. The exceptions above referred to are in the low bottoms in the Sacramento valley, which were drawned out by the February flood, and Tule Islands in the delta of the Sacramento river. The latter are still flooded, over the greater portion of their surface, and nothing more than late crops of vegetables can be expected there.

> St. Lot is, April 10.—The question as to whether the German language shall continue to be taught in the public schools here, which has agitated the community, and been the subject of time past, was settled, for the present at least, by the Board of Public School Directors last night. They held a very late session, and discussed and debated the question from numerous standpoints, and finally, after taking two or three test votes, which were favorable to the German, they, after midnight, adopted the majority report of the committee having the matter in charge, which reported in favor of retaining German, music, drawing and the kindergartens by a viva voce vote, thus putting the matter at rest until the next election for School Directors.

BAN FRANCISCO, April 10 .-- Crop reperts received this evening from all parts of the State are of the most faorable character, with few exceptions. There is a prospect of an abundant harvest in all quarters. The southers portion of the State and San Josquin Valley, in which crops failed last year, promise equally well with northern vallevs. In some localities there is complaint that, owing to early snow, grain has grown so rank as to lodge, but this has not occurred to any material extent. The exceptions above referred to are in the low bottoms in the Sacramento valley, which were drawned out by the February flood, and Tule Islands in the delta of the Sacramento river. The latter are still flooded, over the greater portion of their surface, and nothing more than late crops of vegetables can be expected there.

Butteenmert Pressur .-- On Monday last a lively tossle came of between a Mrs. Jones on the one part, and Misses. Namey Con and Anna Miller on the other, at a point on the Paris railroad, about two miles from town. The difficulty arose from the stelling by Mrs Jones of young sister of Misa Cox. This not led to a lively cannonading with tongues, which resulted in a general hair-pulling and in the throwing of rocks, one of which hit Mrs. Jones on the eye, giving that member a doubledly cable hue. On Tuesday the girle, Miller and Cox, came to town and, going before Justice Albert, they plead guilty to an assault and were fined three dollars and costs. They then swere out a warrant against Mrs. Jones, and had ber brought before the same magtertrate where a similar fine to the one abovenamed was assessed upon her.

A SAD AND PATAL ACCIDENT.

Yesterday morning a young man by the name of Ed Roberts a son of R 3 Roberts, one of our well known citizens, entered the employ of the Wabash Railroad Company as brakeman. He made his first trap yesterday, going cast as far as Danville, and returning last night about ten o'clock. While coupling cars at the North Main street crossing, after his train was in last evening, he by some mesns fell between a couple of box cars, the wheels of one of which passed over both of the young man's legs, crushing them in a frightful manner. One leg was crushed between the hip and knee. and the other just above the ankle. He was at once conveyed to the residence of his parents, on William street, and sungical againtance was called. The attending surgeons at once decided that the crushed limbs must be amputated as soon as the condition of the patient would warrant it. The operation was performed about half past eleven, and the victim of the accident survived the amoutation only about an hour, notwithstanding the ntmost skill and attention on the part of the attending surgeons. The unfortunate young than was conscious both be fore and after the amputation, and said that his fall was occasioned by a defective rail

Intelligence of the sad affair called furth many expressions of sincere regret. and the afflicted family will have the sympaths of the community in their sudden bereavement

The funeral of young Roberts will take place at the residence of the parents, on East William street, to morrow (Friday) April 19th, at 10 o'clock, a m Friends are invited

THAT IS BEAUTT?

This question has alike puzzied the over and the philosopher. The sage of alyzes it into perfection of feature and coloring, and the lover, looking the homely face of his addred the lover, looking the clares that tru; beauty pertain attached the imperishable soul than to the changing body. But the physician knows that the chief element of beauty is health. Health is to beauty what, the subtle main-netic current is to the bar of polished steal-by its presence attracting and retaining all its devoters Beauty without health is a shrine without an oracle. Woman cannot possess this subtle attractive power of beauty while suffering from those chronic aliments and weak to see that continually exhaust the springs of her vitality. To the Citzens of Decapur:

Deeming it but justice to ourselves, we wish to state a few faces in many to our actions since being elected alderman of this city-especially since the commence ' ment of the administration of the present mayor-we take this appostudity to say that, while we deplore the condition of our municipal affairs and heartify wish we believe that if all of the facts were known, no intalligent and impartial oithzen could attach my blame to us for the condition of effairs now existing in the community.

In the first place, we have shows so disposition to do anything in contentention of the best interests of the city of Decatur, and most of us have made very considerable compromises in favor of opposing partisans, but who have proved efficient and unobjectionable, so far as the discharge of their official duties are concerned, and we can assure you that we have no disposition to bring the present administration into discredit. If we had no higher motive, the contempt that we would necessarily bring upon ourselves would be sufficient incentive for us to do all that we reasonably could to make the administration respectable.-There has been no planned resistance to the prerogatives of the mayor, and will be none, so long as temperately and judicloudy exercised. So far so the topuser ance question is concerned, we all claim to be--and we believe all ess temperate men: but as to the best method of controlling the liquer traffic, we differ very widely among ourselves, and possibly the most of us differ also with the mayor, and even a misjority of the citizens at lastic. However that may be, so far as the mayor is concerned, he certainly is not applicate mines in his opposition to liquid lighted, as at least one of our number, which never would have signed Toby Kolmel's license. And we wish here, umplintically, to disclaim any desire or intention of bring-the contrary, we all pledge ourselves to the good people of Decatur, as we have already dome to the mayor qualte camic at his to use our best endeavors to sid the mayor and all officers of the city in the enforce ment of all laws and ordinances in relalion to the liquor traffic, as well as all other laws in force affecting the city.

In reference to the conference with the mayor at the Pricet House on Wednesday evening, it was our understanding with the mayor and simong ourselves and the other aldermen present, that whatever might be there said or done should not go abroad to unnecessarily wound aspirants or their friends, and thus leave all free and unrestrained in word and act. And yet the mayor now publishes, over his own signature, his version of the action of the especia, and after his constitue? tion to the motives of the 7. He says, By the advice of many friends I will make public the caucus proceedings of last Wednesday evening, especially since the proceedings are not generally known, and in justice to myself will now remove the bar of secreey." In stating the object of the sauces the mayor said, "as I wanted harmony of action, I thought it better to decide who would be acceptable for the various offices in caucus than to put various once in nomination, before, the public and have in open council, any name rejected by the raucus, he said that he would not Tet the following evening he did, in open council, and without consulting any one

The difficulty arese from the stelling by Mrs Junes of a young sister of Miss Cox. This not led to a lively canaonading with tongues, which resulted in a general heir-pulling and in the throwing of rucks, one of which hit Mrs. Jones on the eye, giving that member a decidedly soble has. On Tuesday the girle, Miller and Cor, came to town and, going before Justice Albert, they plead gully to an assault and were fined three dollars and costs. They then awore out a warrant against Mrs. Jones, and had her brought before the same magistrate where a similar fine to the one abovenamed was assessed upon her.

A SAD AND PATAL ACCIDENT.

A H Locke, H A White

Yesterday morning a young man by the name of Ed Roberts a son of R J entered the employ of the Wabash Railroad Company as brakeman. He made ble first trip yesterday, going tast as far as Danville, and returning last night about ten o'clock. While coupling cars at the North Main street crossing, after his train was in last evening, he by some means fell between a couple of hox cars, the wheels of one of which passed over both of the young man's legs, crushing them la a frightful manner. One leg was crushed between the hip and knee, and the other just above the ankle. He was at once conveyed to the residence of his parents, on William street, and surgical assistance was called. The attending surgeons at once decided that the crushes limbs must be amputated as soon as the condition of the patient would warrant

it. The operation was performed about half past eleven, and the victim of the accident survived the amputation only about an hour, notwithstanding the ut most skill and attention on the part of the attending surgeons. The unfortu nate young man was conscious both be fore and after the amputation, and said that his fall was occasioned by a defective rall

Intelligence of the sad affair called furth many expressions of sincere regret and the afficted family will have the sympathy of the community in their sudden herenvement

To the Citzens of Decatur:

Decring it but justice to ourselves, we wish to state a formacte, in regard to our actions since being elected alderman of this city—especially since the commencement of the administration of the present mayor-we take this apportunity to my that, while we deplore the condition of our municipal affairs and heatilty wish peace and harmony, instead of discord, (we believe that if all of the facts were knows, so intelligent and impartial sitizen could ajtach any biame to us for the condition of effairs now existing in the community.

- HIDELPOOKA OT

In the first place, we have shown to disposition to do anything in contentention of the hest interests of the city of Decator, and most of us have made very considerable compromises in favor of opposing partisons, but who have proved efficient and unobjectionable, so far as the discharge of their official duties are concerned, and we can assure you that we have no disposition to bring the present administration into discredit. If we had no higher motive, the contempt that we would necessarily bring upon ourselves would be sufficient incentive for us to do all that we reasonably could to make the administration respectable .--There has been no planned resistance to the prerogatives of the mayor, and will be none, so long as temperately and judiciously exercised. So far so the temperance question is concerned, we all claim to be--and we believe all are temperate men; but us to the best method of controlling the liquer traffic, we differ very widely among ourselves, and possibly the most of us differ also with the mayor, and even a misjority of the citizens the large. However that may be, so tar as the mayor is concerned, he correlate is not applicamines in his organition to liquor limbors, as at least one of our number, classic. never would have signed Toby Kolmel's license,
And we wish here, smalinticality, to disclaim any desire or intention of bringing temperance and sobriety, or their consistent advocates into discredit, At the contrary, we all pledge ourselves to the good people of Decatur, as we have already done to the mayor such to easis at hill to use our best endeavors to sid the mayor and all officers of the cay in the enforce ment of all laws and ordinances in relalion to the liquor traffic, as well as all other isws in force affecting the city.

In reference to the conference with the mayor at the Priest House on Wednesday evening, it was our understanding with the mayor and simong ourselves said the other aldermen present, that whatever might be there said or dans should not go abroad to unnecessarily wound sapirants or their friends, and thus leave all free and unrestrained in word and act. And yet the mayor now publishes, over his own signature, his version of the action of the essent part after his constitue. tion to the motives of the 7. He says, "By the advice of many friends I will make public the caucus proceedings of last Wednesday evening, especially since the proceedings are not generally known, and in justice to myself will now remove the bar of secresy."

If the mayor is senting to be chacked.

If in good faith he is seeking conciliation, and his friends who are advising with him, are seconding office him in his send passions; physically his let down the "bar of secrecy" he helped put up, without even saying by your leave. In station the object of the saucus the mayor said, "as I wanted barmony of action, I thought it better to decide who would be acceptable for the various offices in caucus than to put various opes in nomination before the public and have them thingstored, and talked the inquiry as to whether he would propose in open council, any name rejected by the caucus, he said that he would not Yet the following evening he did, in open council, and without consulting any one of us, protect agrees, names, the had been rejected by the cheets. The mayor appointed W. H. Kelley, and though a blue ribbon man, the 7 are hunting up Mr. Kelley's record with the view of confirming and retaining himso long as he continues faithful to his trust. In conclusion we wish to say that if Mr.
